

State of New Mexico

Office of the Governor

Bill Richardson
Governor

EXECUTIVE ORDER 2003-032

WHEREAS, Joe Vigil and Colin McMillan dedicated their lives to public service, contributed to programs of local and national importance and provided leadership that inspired people of all ages and walks of life; and

WHEREAS, Joe Vigil dedicated his life to educating the youth of New Mexico, was a forward-thinking educator for more than 20 years who cared deeply about the lives of children in our State and excelled as a Superintendent for the Albuquerque Public Schools; and

WHEREAS, Colin McMillan's unquestionable leadership included service in the New Mexico House of representatives for 11 years, as an assistant Secretary of Defense for our national government as well as being a strong community and business leader. President Bush's recent nomination of McMillan to serve as civilian head of the Navy is most indicative of his success and dedication; and

WHEREAS, as the result of their tragic and untimely deaths, the thoughts and prayers of the people of New Mexico go out to the families of Joe Vigil and Colin McMillan as well as a heartfelt thank you for their service to the people of New Mexico;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Diane D. Denish, Acting Governor of the State of New Mexico pursuant to Article V, Section 7 of the New Mexico Constitution, by virtue of the authority vested in the Governor, do hereby order that all flags be flown at half-staff from Monday, July 28, 2003, through sundown Sunday, August 3, 2003, in mourning and in honor of Joe Vigil and Colin McMillan.
